

computing inventions

Investigator Name:

---

Investigator Class:

---

Task 1: Recent Invention

- Find an example of something relating to Computing that has been invented in the last few years
- Find a suitable image to show the invention at its best
- Explain what the invention is
- Think of some advantages and disadvantages
- Write a website address of a news article about it

Task 2: Future World

- Where is the world going with technology?
- Conduct some research to find out what might be invented over the next few years and beyond – try to find at least three things
- Summarise your findings in a similar way to Task 1
  - Find suitable images to show the invention
  - Explain what the inventions are
  - Think of some advantages and disadvantage
  - Write a website address which contains information about it

Task 3: News Article

- Think of an invention yourself
- The invention must make use of Computing
- Format and write a news article that talks about your new invention, explaining how it might change the world forever

challenge

If you can design a 'prototype' of what it might look like

